

POSTCARDS FROM THE FUTURE

Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons

Friday 16 June 2006

AGENDA

Time	Session	Chairman
9.00	Registration and coffee
9.30	Where are we now? Lynne Hill MRCVS, President RCVS	Martyn Jones MP
10.00	What will practice look like? Peter Watson Managing Director, Vets4Pets Ltd Peter Orpin BVSc MRCVS, The Park Veterinary Group
10.45	Coffee break for 20 minutes
11.05	What will practitioners be like? Dr Susie Sanderson, Chairperson, British Dental Association Huw Griffiths MRCVS, The Liphook Equine Hospital	Prof Quintin McKellar MRCVS, Principal, Royal Veterinary College
11.50	What will animal owners demand? Jonathan Long, Farmers Weekly Livestock Editor Dr Eric Jackson MRCVS
12.35	Lunch for one hour
13.35	What will the veterinary team comprise? Gillian Page BSc VN, Ayrton Veterinary Centre Andrew Cairns FRPharmS, Chair of the Veterinary Pharmacists Group, Royal Pharmaceutical Society of GB	Dr Christianne Glossop MRCVS, Chief Veterinary Officer Wales
14.20	What advances will there be in veterinary science? Dr Wendy Harrison MRCVS, Glaxo SmithKline Prof Joe Brownlie MRCVS, Department of Pathology, Royal Veterinary College
15.05	Tea break for 20 minutes
15.25	What will be the role of the state? Charles Milne MRCVS, Chief Veterinary Officer Scotland Alick Simmons MRCVS, Veterinary Director, Food Standards Agency	Dr Freda Scott-Park MRCVS, President, British Veterinary Association
16.10	Summing up Dr Debby Reynolds, Chief Veterinary Officer	Lynne Hill MRCVS President, RCVS
16.40	Close	