

Disclosure Form for cautions, convictions and adverse findings for Registered Veterinary Nurses

Registered veterinary nurses must disclose to the RCVS any caution or conviction, including absolute and conditional discharges, or adverse findings, whether in the UK or overseas, with the exception of spent convictions and minor offences excluded from disclosure by the RCVS. For more information, please contact the Professional Conduct Department on 020 3821 1142 or by email: disclosure@rcvs.org.uk.

All Registered Veterinary Nurses are asked to make an annual declaration as part of the renewal of their registration. Alternatively, you can submit any cautions, convictions or adverse findings by completing this form and returning it to the Professional Conduct Department.

Conviction	Date of conviction	Name and address of the police authority or court	Details of the penalty or sanction that were imposed

Please provide any other relevant information or evidence, which may include a statement from you outlining the circumstances of the offence (please use a separate sheet of paper if necessary), and the name of the investigating officer.

Please complete all of the sections below

Register number
Name
Membership category
Correspondence Address
	Postcode		Country
Telephone number
Mobile number
Email address

Declaration

- (a) I declare that the information supplied is, to the best of my knowledge, correct; and,
- (b) I authorise the police and/or other relevant authorities to disclose to the RCVS information relevant to the conviction, caution or adverse finding .

Signed: _____ Dated: _____ / _____ / _____

Please return your completed signed form using one of the following methods:

By post, to:

Professional Conduct Department
Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons
WeWork, The Cursitor
38 Chancery Lane
London
WC2A 1EN

Scanned and emailed to: disclosure@rcvs.org.uk